About the Dr. Seuss Foundation

The Dr. Seuss Foundation was founded in 1958, beginning a commitment to philanthropy by Ted A Geisel (Dr. Seuss), as well as Helen Palmer Geisel and Audrey (Stone) Dimond whom he married in 1968 after Helen died. The Geisels' giving often aligned with the values espoused in Ted's books, especially education and literacy. The focus of grantmaking is on improving literacy and learning as these are essential to succeeding in the multi-layered worlds of the arts and humanities, health and well-being, animal welfare, and the environment.
